ACCREDITATION TEAM INVITES PUBLIC COMMENT

(Harvey Cedars, NJ) A team of assessors from the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police (NJSACOP) will arrive on Monday, July 10, 2017, to examine all aspects of the Harvey Cedars Police Department's policies and procedures, management, operations, and support services Chief Robert Burnaford announced today.

"Verification by the team that the Harvey Cedars Police Department meets the Commission's "best practice" standards is part of a voluntary process to achieve accreditation, a highly prized recognition of law enforcement professional excellence", Chief Burnaford said.

As part of this final on-site assessment, employees and members of the general public are invited to provide comments to the assessment team. They may do so by telephone or email. The public may call (609) 494-1767 on Monday July 10, 2017, between the hours of 9:30 AM – 11:30 AM, Email comments can be sent to police@harveycedars.org.

Telephone comments are limited to 5 minutes and must address the agency's ability to comply with the NJSACOP standards. A copy of the standards is available for inspection at the Harvey Cedars Police Department, 7606 Long Beach Blvd Harvey Cedars, NJ. Please contact Chief Burnaford at (609) 494-6509.

Anyone wishing to offer written comments about the Harvey Cedars Police Department's ability to comply with the standards for accreditation is requested to email the Accreditation Program manager at hdelgado@njsacop.org or write the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police, Law Enforcement Accreditation Commission at 751 Route 73 North, Suite 12 Marlton, N.J. 08053.

The Harvey Cedars Police Department must comply with 105 standards in order to achieve accredited status. Chief Burnaford indicated, "Accreditation results in greater accountability within the agency, reduced risk and liability exposure, stronger defense against civil lawsuits, increased community advocacy, and more confidence in the agency's ability to operate efficiently and respond to community needs."

The Accreditation Program Manager for the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police is Mr. Harry J Delgado, Ed.S. "The assessment team is composed of law enforcement practitioners from similar New Jersey law enforcement agencies. The assessors will review written materials, interview agency members, and visit offices and other places where compliance with the standards can be observed. Once the Commission's assessors complete their review of the agency, they will report to the full Commission, which will then decide if the agency is to be granted accredited status", Harry J Delgado stated.

Accreditation is valid for a three-year period during which time the agency must submit annual reports attesting to their continued compliance with those standards under which it was initially accredited.

The New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police through its New Jersey Law Enforcement

Accreditation Commission is the legitimate authority and accreditation agency in the state of New Jersey.
